A LITTLE HISTORY

A little history with a touch of charm and you've got the Callaway Gardens Country Store®. This old-fashioned store, atop Pine Mountain, is one of the original buildings at Callaway Gardens.

Its "general store" charm coupled with unique food products and home décor items make it Callaway Gardens' most popular retail shop. It was here that Cason Callaway first captured guests' appreciation.

He created Blue Springs Farm to experiment with agriculture—growing plants, fruits, vegetables and livestock—to help farmers be successful in soil depleted by poor cotton farming practices. This combined with Cason and Virginia Callaway's passion for good Southern food inspired the creation of the Country Kitchen restaurant we continue to enjoy today.
